

Reasons Why We Believe

- The existence, order and beauty of the world.
 - (Science says “nothing comes from nothing”)
- The pervasiveness of religious belief (i.e. theism) and the persistence of religion.
- The Moral Imperative.
 - True and false.
 - Right and wrong.
 - Good and evil.

The sense of the need to “give an accounting” for ourselves.

- The will-to-meaning, and the revulsion towards meaninglessness.
- The attractions towards Beauty.
- The communal nature of the human person: we are conceived in “community’ and destined for community.
- The irrepressibility of HOPE and JOY.
