Pot Pourri

Today, every Catholic community and parish throughout the world takes part in World Mission Sunday in a global effort to bring spiritual and material help to our brothers and sisters who are thirsting for the hope and love that comes through knowing Jesus. Today is very special; the whole Church unites in one great act of love for those parts of the world where the young Church needs our help, enabling it to grow strong and vibrant. Your kindness will help all missionaries across the world!

Are you a couple yearning to get more involved in a Parish Ministry but haven't found the "right" one yet? Do you have one Friday night, Sunday afternoon, or one weekend a year that you could commit to support our young adults? If so, you may be the couple we have been looking for to help us in the Catholic Engaged Encounter ministry. For more information, contact Stephen and Kristi AuBuchon, 256-230-0483

As St. John the Baptist Catholic School completes its third self study for re-accreditation, a revision of the mission and beliefs statements is surfacing. We would love to have the parishioners input in this effort. Please email Sherry Lewis at slewis@stjohnb.com if you would like to receive and respond to information regarding the new mission and belief statements.

Are you smarter than a “Middle Schooler”? Throughout the year we will be offering you a chance to answer just a few of the questions that are covered in our Parish RE Program...

This Week's Question:

What do we call words, actions and objects that are blessed and used to get closer to God?

(from the Diocesan Test Study Guide for 5th Graders)

Did you know... Sacramentals are sacred signs instituted by the Church. They prepare [us]to receive the fruit of the sacraments and sanctify different circumstances of life. Among the sacramentals blessings occupy an important place. They include both praise of God for his works and gifts, and the Church's intercession for [all people] that they may be able to use God's gifts according to the spirit of the Gospel. CCC #1677-1678
