Happy New Year!

RE is back TODAY January 3rd, 2010. Wednesday RE Classes and resume this Wednesday January 6th.

Go Home by Another Way..

In the early Church, there were two main feast days, Easter and Epiphany. These were the two times of year that people would prepare and come into the church. While Easter is still months away, Epiphany is upon us, and on this day we pay homage to Jesus our infant King. Like the Magi, we come to Christ from different backgrounds, and with different intentions. But upon meeting Christ in the manger, we are challenged to journey "home" by a different way. As the Christmas season comes to a close for another year, let us all pray that with Christ among us, we can change our lives for the better, and continue to grow in our faith!

*Go ahead and make a resolution, and work hard at it...
After all, change IS difficult!*
